INSTALL PYTHON IDE

STEP-1:

The screenshot shows the PyCharm download page. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for 'Coming in 2022.3', 'What's New', 'Features', 'Learn', 'Pricing', and a 'Download' button. The main heading is 'Download PyCharm'. Below it, there are tabs for 'Windows', 'macOS', and 'Linux'. The 'Professional' section describes it as 'For both Scientific and Web Python development. With HTML, JS, and SQL support.' and has a 'Download' button with the text 'Free 30-day trial available'. The 'Community' section describes it as 'For pure Python development' and also has a 'Download' button with the text 'Free, built on open-source'. On the left, there's a PyCharm logo and version information: 'Version: 2022.2.3', 'Build: 222.4345.23', '11 October 2022'. Below this are links for 'System requirements', 'Installation instructions', 'Other versions', and 'Third-party software'. At the bottom, there's a box promoting the 'Toolbox App' to download PyCharm and its future updates with ease.

STEP-2:

The screenshot shows the PyCharm download confirmation page. The main heading is 'Thank you for downloading PyCharm!'. Below it, the text says 'Your download should start shortly. If it doesn't, please use the direct link.' and 'Download and verify the file SHA-256 checksum.' At the bottom, there's a 'Getting Started' section with a 'Send' button and a 'Pause' button. A context menu is open over the 'Pause' button, showing options: 'Open when done', 'Always open files of this type', 'Pause', 'Show in folder', and 'Cancel'. On the right, there's a 'New to PyCharm?' section with links for 'Follow us on Twitter', 'Installation guide', 'Learning center', and 'PyCharm Guide'. At the bottom, there's a taskbar showing the file 'pycharm-commun...exe' with a size of '361/278 MB' and a time of '1 sec left'.
